

Save Lewisham
Hospital Campaign is hosting a film
show

as part of the New Cross and Deptford Free Film Festival

in solidarity with health workers and campaigners in Greece.

Monday 27 April

Into the Fire

a short film about migrant workers in Greece at a time of economic crisis.

& Ruins

chronicle of an HIV witch hunt - a documentary about the criminalisation of HIV in Greece in the thick of the economic crisis.

There will be discussion after the films led by doctors who have recently been to Greece to visit health workers and hospitals dealing with the economic crisis.

Refreshments available.

Doors open at 6.30pm, starts promptly at 7.15pm

Monday 27 April

7pm - 9pm

Venue: New X Learning 283 - 285 New Cross Road, SE14 6AS

for more info: call Jill on 07904 944 771 or visit: www.savelewishamhospital.com/solidarity-with-greece/<http://www.freefilmfestivals.org/whats-on/new-cross.html>